Weed coffee shops in Prague coffee shops offer a unique and relaxed atmosphere for cannabis enthusiasts. While they don’t sell THC products directly like in Amsterdam, many allow smoking inside or on terraces, creating a chill vibe for socializing. The staff are usually friendly, and you can enjoy a coffee or snack while unwinding. Some places even have a selection of CBD products. These spots are perfect for meeting like-minded people, enjoying the city’s laid-back culture, and experiencing Prague in a more relaxed way. If you’re visiting, definitely check out the local weed-friendly cafés for a memorable experience!
