

Guys, which Casino has a decent welcome bonus?

Good day, everyone! An old friend of mine from my college days has moved to Montreal permanently, and the other day he was bragging about how great his life is there. We talk on the phone often, and he suggested we spend an evening playing slots or a few hands of blackjack together while he's on his lunch break there. Now I urgently need a decent casino site with a welcome bonus that works smoothly for locals and gives a good head start, so it won't be boring to explore the game catalog.

And while the thought's still fresh, I'll ask right away: what's the minimum deposit required to activate the main welcome package, and how much time do they usually give to meet all the requirements so the bonus doesn't expire?

Yes, playing games together remotely is a great way to maintain friendships. So, I think the OMG platform would be the perfect option for you and your friend in Montreal. If you're looking for the best online casino welcome bonus canada, OMG's terms are some of the most transparent. Just for signing up, they credit you with five dollars immediately. When you top up your balance, you get a 100% bonus up to a thousand dollars. And the minimum deposit to activate this offer is just $20. And you'll have to play the deposit forty times on slots or in live games, but that'll fly by unnoticed while you're chatting. Has your friend in Montreal started learning French, or is he still getting by in English?
