Ecommerce Testing Services

Vložil frankis - 20/11/2026 20:55

What should businesses consider when choosing a company to test an ecommerce website with a complicated checkout process and multiple third-party integrations? We need to identify functional errors, performance issues, browser compatibility problems, and usability defects before they affect customers. How should a testing project be organized, and what deliverables should we expect from the team?

==========