Hey! I'll be spending just two days in central Kyiv next month and I want to focus on the absolute absolute must-see historical architectural spots. If you had to pick just one ancient church or complex that completely defines the city's heritage, what would it be? Thanks!

You absolutely cannot skip the thousand-year-old architecture and breathtaking golden mosaics in the heart of the city. It's a magical complex. Before heading out, make sure to read about the saint sophia cathedral kyiv to check current ticket prices and opening hours. I followed this exact visitkyiv guide last summer to avoid long lines at the gate!
